

Crabs Lacrosse Expands Network via Partnership with Cavalier Lacrosse Club

Top lacrosse clubs in Northern Virginia to join forces

Baltimore Lacrosse Club (Crabs) is pleased to announce a new partnership with the Boys division of the Cavalier Lacrosse Club. This partnership joins two of the top clubs in Virginia together under the Virginia Lacrosse Club (VLC) name. The addition of the Cavalier Lacrosse Club to Crabs' nationwide network of affiliates continues to expand the Baltimore powerhouse's national reach, tapping into one of the top providers of youth lacrosse in Virginia. The Cavalier Girls division remains intact and is not included in this deal.

Cavalier Lacrosse, led by boys' lacrosse director James Cramp, has a footprint that extends throughout Northern Virginia, into West Virginia and the suburbs of the District of Columbia. Cavalier Lacrosse athletes will have access to the Crabs nationally recognized programming for development and exposure via elite travel team participation and attendance at the most prestigious tournaments and showcases throughout the USA.

"I'm excited to work with Coach Cramp, his staff, and the Cavalier families. Together VLC and Cavs, through their combined resources and experience, can better serve Northern Virginia's best and brightest athletes as they pursue their goals in the sport of lacrosse" said BLC founder Ryan McClernan. "It is a blessing to be a part of the journey these young athletes embark upon from youth lacrosse through middle school and high school before moving onto the college ranks."

Cavalier Lacrosse Club offers lacrosse teams, leagues and instruction for boys and girls from youth to high school levels, as well as men's elite and masters opportunities. The "cradle to grave" opportunities at Cavalier Lacrosse have guided dozens of players toward fulfilling their dreams of playing in college. Mentored by a coaching staff with significant experience at the Division I, II and III levels, Cavalier Lacrosse focuses on individual skills development as well as mentoring athletes thru the college recruitment process to ensure the right fit, athletically and academically. The emphasis on #cavsfamily reflects the lasting relationships built with players and their families and the larger community to which Cavalier lacrosse players contribute.
